Mr George H Wiley, general superintendent of the ex-Prisoners' Association, has accepted the managament of the Otterburn Lithia Water Company and will have his headquarters at L. Wagner's, Bixth and Broad Streets. This does not mean, as Mr. Wiley explains, that he is to resign from his position in the ex-Prisoners' Association or that he has any idea of giving it up. It is simply, as he states, that he may secure some nermanent means of livelihood while he is continuing his ministry among the ex-prisoners. The association cannot afford to give him a solary that will afford him a living, and Mr. Wiley distlikes the idea of making more out of a religious organization.
